PARIS JUNTA RECEIVES WAR NEWS

According to Report, the Americans Suffer Severe Defeat.

Paris, June 30.—[Special]—The Filipino junta here has received news of severe American defeats, north and south of Manila.

At Malabay and North Paranaue, a detachment of one hundred and eleven Americans were ambushed and in the ensuing fight the Americans suffered ninety-seven casualties and thirteen of them were taken prisoners at Calocan. An American detachment under command of Capt. Rockefeller was surrounded and were captured to a man.

The junta further gives out that Ponce, the Filipinos' agent in Japan, has ordered a quantity of new formidable torpedoes for use against the American fleet at Manila.

Ponce has also placed orders for light artillery.

To Organize Nine Volunteer Regiments.

Washington, June 30.—[Special]—The president has decided that final orders be prepared for the organization in this country of nine volunteer regiments to be held in readiness to send to Gen. Otis.

This may amount to a decision, to send them as soon as they can be assembled and transportation secured.

This force will aggregate eleven thousand and five hundred men.

Washington, June 30.—The war department has not yet placed a limit upon the number of men to be recruited for the Philippines. Secretary Alger said yesterday that the recruiting officers were instructed to make enlistments until the department ordered to the contrary. He would not say when the recruiting would stop. He announced, however, that it was the purpose of the department to furnish Gen. Otis soldiers not only to take the place of those incapacitated by sickness and wounds and those killed in the harassing sorties of the Filipinos during the rainy season, but also to furnish garrisons and police for the cities and towns occupied by the United States. At present a comparatively small force will be required for the purpose. When active campaigning is resumed after the close of the rainy season, and the American army with a fighting force of 30,000 proceeds against the Filipinos, their progress should be rapid, and hence a large reserve force will be required to garrison the places captured.

Some officers estimate that if the present intention of the administration, as explained by Secretary Alger, is carried out, Gen. Otis will have an actual force of something like 60,000 men. To give him such an army the full 35,000 provisional volunteers must be recruited, unless affairs in the United States, Cuba and Porto Rico change in a marked degree and permit the withdrawal of more regulars than now seems possible.

The moral effect upon Aguinaldo and his associates of recent statements from the war department must be very great. It is intended that they should know that an army of 30,000 men constantly ready and fit for battle will confront them, and not be diminished in number by any cause whatever. When they realize that behind this fighting force there will be a reserve sufficient to fill all vacancies in the lines, and also furnish garrisons and police for the captured territory, the enormous task they have should be recognized, and they should be impressed with the fact that opposition to such an army is hopeless. Now that they know a large army will confront them they may be willing seriously to consider the terms of surrender offered by the Philippine commission.

The present plan of the war department is to enlist seven regiments for service in the Philippines. Muster rolls for these regiments are being prepared and will soon be ready for use. The regiments each will consist of 1,750 men, giving a total of 10,990. The enlistments will be made with great care, and as far as practicable men of 30 years or over and those of military experience will be selected. Young and inexperienced men, who will naturally be in the majority at the recruiting stations, will be given second choice. The officers, as far as possible and practicable, will be selected from among those who have served in the volunteer ranks in the Philippines. In this way the war department expects to get a class of officers and men who will compare favorably with those of the regular army.

A dispatch was sent to Gen. Shafter by Adjt.-Gen. Corbin, directing him to dispatch every available transport to the Philippines at full speed with the troops he has on hand, regardless of organizations. The dispatch instructed him not to delay for anything, so that a sufficient number of transports might arrive at Manila to bring the volunteers back on schedule time. For this purpose, too, several additional transports have been chartered, as the department purposes to get the volunteers home from the Philippines as expeditiously as possible.

Many Regiments Tendered.

Washington, June 30.—The war department has had offers of regiments and applications by the acceptance of which 100,000 men could be enrolled immediately for service in the Philippines, but the officials have definitely decided to accept no military organizations as a whole, and will raise by individual enlistments the ten additional regiments which are to re-enforce Gen. Otis.

OSHKOSH SUFFERED BY RECENT FLOOD

FOX RIVER AND LAKE WINNEBAGO OVERFLOW.

Witnesses in the Hempton Murder Trial at Manitowoc Say Defendant Acted Strangely—May Be a Clue to a Murder Near Hartford—News From Badgerdom.

Oshkosh, Wis., June 30.—The water in the Fox river and Lake Winnebago is higher than it has been at any time in ten years, and has reached a rather critical stage. It is now 15½ inches above the crest of the Menasha dam. Frequent rains of unusual severity are responsible for this state of affairs.

People owning property along the shores of Lake Butte des Morts and Lake Winnebago are being flooded, and considerable damage is resulting. Lake Butte des Morts now gives the appearance of having increased in size, owing to the inundation of the marsh lands along its shores. Farmers will have no marsh hay crop this year because of the flood. Owners of summer resort property say that their land is being encroached upon by the waters to an alarming extent.

It is expected that Assistant Secretary of War Melklejohn will arrive here in a few days to investigate the conditions that prevail with the end in view of making a report to the department. Capt. L. M. Mann has made a special report of the condition of the water, the stage being at a point quite unusual.

Testify as to His Sanity

Manitowoc, Wis., June 30.—The defense put on many witnesses yesterday in the Hempton murder trial. The testimony, however, varied but little from that given yesterday, all testifying that Hempton at times acted very strange. Wallace Hempton, his brother, testified as to the injuries his brother had received when a boy, and also related the incidents which led up to his commitment to the insane asylum some years ago.

Several saloonkeepers also testified that on the day of the murder he had been in their saloons, and had acted queer, talking about his troubles at home.

Dr. Luhmann, the last witness of the day, was on the stand for two hours. The attorney for the defense asked him a long hypothetical question, to which he replied that such a version of the case showed insanity. He will be called again tomorrow morning for cross-examination by attorneys for the state.

Dr. Wegge, the insanity expert of Milwaukee, will also go on the stand tomorrow. The defense will probably take up the rest of the week.

New York, June 30.—Gov. Roosevelt's declaration in favor of the renomination of President McKinley and his positive announcement that he is not to be considered as a candidate for the presidential nomination next year is looked upon by the political leaders in this city as rendering President McKinley's renomination certain, and as removing all possibility of serious opposition. ## DISLIKES THE UNION LABELS

Local Shoe Dealers Receive a Circular Letter Explaining

A circular letter has been received here by local shoe dealers from Pingree & Smith, of Detroit, saying that they had decided to abandon the use of the labor union stamp on their goods. The cause is given on account of the Shoe-makers' union having presented a new scale of wages calling for an advance of from 15 to 50 per cent, which is claimed is such as to make it impossible to compete with other factories. Customers who have ordered fall goods with the label are privileged to cancel the goods.

DRINK GRAIN-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine, but doctors order it because it is healthful, invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grain, and has that rich seal brown color and taste like the finest grades of coffee and costs about 1/4 as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink. 15 and 25c.

Colors of Lake Waters.

It is well known that the water of many lakes exhibit characteristic colors. The Lake of Geneva, at the western end of Switzerland, is blue, while the Lake of Constance, at the eastern end of Switzerland, is green. Blueness implies purity, since the natural color of water is blue. A green lake has its water slightly colored with impurities, which may be exceedingly fine particles, separately invisible. Prof. Spring of the University of Liege says that green lakes sometimes become absolutely colorless for a time, and he has found that this sudden change of hue is due to the washing into the lakes of mud colored red by oxide of iron. Red is complementary to green, and the result of the mixture is that the green color of the water becomes for the time being neutralized.

A Singing Well.

Near Wiederman's, Texas, is an abandoned well, about 60 feet deep, which, a correspondent of Popular Science says, is famous in the neighborhood for its musical powers. In fine weather, particularly with a westerly wind, it gives forth a sound like that of an Aeolian harp, swelling and dying away by turns. When a heavy northerly wind is blowing, the water rises within a few feet of the top, and strange noises, which some persons think resemble moans, issue from the old well. An attempt to fill up the well a few years ago failed, apparently because of the existence of a subterranean cavity which swallowed up the dirt as fast as it was dumped in.

Where Sir Walter Scott Proposed.

"The Popping Stone" marks the spot where Sir Walter Scott asked Miss Carpenter to marry him. It is situated in the beautiful valley of the Irthing, at Gilsland, an inland watering place near Carlisle. The popping stone is visited by many thousands during the summer months and, it is said, many a laggard lover has had his courage screwed up to popping point at this romantic spot. In the immediate neighborhood may also be seen "Mumps Ha," which Scott immortalized in "Guy Rannering," while a little farther afield the Roman wall and Lanercost priory prove attractions to visitors to Gilsland.

A Merciful Emperor.

This anecdote is related of the Austrian emperor: A sentence had been pronounced in a criminal court, and the document was brought in to the emperor for his signature. He had just commenced writing, his name when a tear fell from his eye, blotting out the letters. The emperor folded the paper together and handed it to his secretary, saying: "Tears wipe out all guilt. I cannot subscribe the judgment. My name is obliterated; destroy the paper and let the guilty one live."

Lucky Chinese Widows.

According to the laws of good society in China, young widows should not remarry. Widowhood is therefore held in the highest esteem, and the older the widow grows the more agreeable her position becomes. Should she reach 50 years she may, by applying to the emperor, get a sum of money with which to buy a tablet, on which her virtues are named. The tablet is placed over the door at the principal entrance of her house.

Bridge Made of Bamboo.

A recent British consular report from the far east describes a suspension bridge of 300 feet span made of bamboo. The cane is split up into fibers and twisted together to form the cables. Considering its span, the material of the structure is quite remarkable. The old tradition that almost anything can be made out of bamboo receives here a good illustration in the field of engineering.

Florida's Sugar Industry.

The sugar industry in Florida is attracting widespread attention, and it is growing in importance as a sure money-making business. In Osceola county there is a great sugar plantation and a sugar refinery to correspond. Tons upon tons of cane are ground and made into sugar and shipped to the markets of the world.

Reward for Gillet's Arrest.

The depositors of Gillet's La Grange bank have offered a reward of $100 for the arrest of the fugitive banker, for whom two indictments have been found by the grand jury. The police of St. Louis and New York have been requested to look out for him, as it is believed that he is one of those cities.

NO CROWN BECOMES A WOMAN

A Tree That Yields Electricity.

A German authority has recently announced the discovery of a tree in the forests of central India which has most curious characteristics. The leaves of the tree are of a highly sensitive nature, and so full of electricity that whoever touches one of them receives an electric shock. It has a very singular effect upon a magnetic needle, and will influence it at a distance of even 70 feet. The electrical strength of the tree varies according to the time of day, it being strongest at midday and weakest at midnight. In wet weather its powers disappear altogether. Birds never approach the tree, nor have insects ever been seen upon it.

Curling Talk Over Telephones.

People who have a grudge against telephone companies in general will be pleased to know that the women of New South Wales refused to be ground down by any soulless corporation. They determined to get the worth of the telephone rent, no matter how much time it took, so they conversed over the wires by the hour until the central office people were driven to distraction. Things got to such a point that the postmaster general in Sydney was appealed to, and he issued an order forbidding loquacious women from monopolizing a telephone for more than ten minutes at a time.

A Language of 300 Words.

In the more inaccessible parts of the Sierra Madre mountains, in northern Mexico, live a curious people called the Tarahumaris. Many of them dwell in caves, but they have also small villages, all of which are situated about 8,000 feet above sea level. The Tarahumaris are small in body, but possessed of much endurance. Their only food is maize, and they manufacture a drink called teshuin from the same cereal. Their language is limited to about 300 words, and they cannot count beyond ten.

A Woman's Chance of Life.

Of 1,000 women at the age of 20, 940 live ten years more, thus making the chance at the age of 20 of a woman living to the age of 30 about 16 to 1 in favor of living. Similarly, of 10,000 women living at the age of 30, 866 live twenty years more; the chance at the age of 30 of a woman living to the age of 50 being, therefore, about 5 to 1 in favor of living. Again, of 1,000 women at the age of 60, 250 live 20 years more—i. e., 25 in 100 live to the age of 80, and 75 in 100 do not.

Believe Mills Is Alive.

The police do not believe that C. S. Mills committed suicide by drowning himself in Lake Michigan recently, as was his expressed intention in letters to his wife, and to the proprietor of McCoy's hotel. While there has been no trace of the man, the police think from the tone of his letters that they were written by one who desires to disappear for a time, rather than by one who intended to commit suicide.

Hallstones.

The organisms of hallstones have been investigated on two occasions by F. C. Harrison, a Canadian bacteriologist, who has found numerous bacteria and molds, including a bacillus and a coccus hitherto undescribed. The character of the germs confirms Bujwid's theory that surface water is carried up by storms and frozen, producing hail.

"Just perfect. She has sense enough on sweeping day to hang the best rug on the front porch."

TEACHER MEET HER NEXT AUGUST

GATHERING WILL LAST THREE WEEKS.

This is Two weeks Longer Than It Has Ever Before Been Held—Prof. S. C. Shurt of Whitewater Normal, Has Be Assigned to Work Here.

The Rock county teachers' institute this year will convene on August 7 and continue for three weeks, two weeks longer than has ever been held before.

This is a great advance in county school work for many years past had than four weeks' institutes but Wisconsin to this year had only one week institutes with short sessions during the school term. For some time it has been that one week was too short and a great deal more could be accomplished in a longer session. Also instead of the superintendent districts in the county holding separate institutes they will join in one institute at Janesville in the high school building. Prof. S. C. Shurt of Whitewater normal, has been assigned to Rock county by the state, and addition, Principal A. P. Hallis of Brodhead, and Miss Mary Holt, of Janesville, have been engaged to assist. It is expected that Miss La Trance (Green) will instruct in drawing, music and penmanship.

Superintendent Tione has sent out notices of several changes in the code. One is that an annual report must be made by each district of all its books, accounts, money at property between July 1 and July 5. Another is that all voters at district must have resided in district thirty days in the state one year. A third change is that no district can draw "public money" unless it has seven months of school each year.

HUNDREDS OF FROZEN SWEET

Young Ladies Social a Great Success.

Last evening "bitter cold" as might be expected an ice cream social was announced but what might seem a great obstacle did not apparently interfere in the least with the social given by the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's church the lawn north of the church parge.

The paragon grounds were beautifully illuminated with Japanese lanterns and heads and presented a very attractive appearance and was admired by passers and many could not withstand temptation and joined the crowds. The social band was present and played sweet strains of music.

That there was liberal patronage is evident from the fact that thirty gallons of ice cream were served, of which nearly seven hundred were served. The affair was a grand success but the Young Ladies' Sodality deserve all and more.

PRAISE FOR Y. M. C. A. BAND

Delavan Lake Assembly Prospects Pays it a Fine Compliment

The Delavan Lake Assembly prospectus contains the following:

Those who attended the first session of the Delavan Lake Assembly will remember with much pleasure the charming music furnished by the Y. M. C. A. band of Janesville, and will without doubt rejoice in the fact that the band is to be given a prominent place on the program for the coming season. This band was organized some five years ago or more by some of the young men of the association who believed that their musical ability could be expressed in such manner as to be a power for mutual uplift and culture in the community.

Prof. J. I. Taylor, from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, a man of rare musical ability, was chosen leader. Semi-weekly rehearsals were inaugurated and maintained without interruption; the repertoire enlarged from time to time; and skill acquired so that today the band stands in the front rank and plays not only the "class" of music usually taken up by amateur organizations, but is playing a large variety of both popular and classic compositions used by the larger professional organizations. The band will spend four days at the assembly, and their sweet strains will be a joy and a delight.

Copper and tin and all material along that line have advanced fully 100 per cent.

I respectfully call your attention to the noxious weed, that you will make unceasing effort, to see that none of them are allowed to bear seed. KA'S
TUNG
REGIMENTTwo-thirds of the Command
Either Killed in Action or Disabled.

The fighting record of the First Nebraska in the Philippine campaign is an extraordinary one. When the regiment sailed for Manila it was 1,200 strong. After two months fighting barely 400 men were left on the firing line. Malaria, dysentery and fever had done for the rest. A large number had been killed in battle; the rest were in the hospitals.

The First Nebraskans are expected home soon and the people of the state are preparing to give the volunteers a rousing welcome. The Omaha exposition management will set aside a whole week during which the returned heroes will be feted and lauded. The broken remnant of the crack regiment will meet with such a reception as the gallant deeds to its credit warrant.

From the first gun of the Filipino revolt the Nebraska troops were in the van of the fighting. In fact it was a shot fired by a Nebraska volunteer that precipitated the war.

Nebraskans marched triumphantly into several towns at the head of the American forces; Nebraskans precipitated the flight of the Filipinos before Malolos, driving Aguinaldo and his cabinet to San Fernando, and from San Fernando farther north; Nebraskans fought in the van of the famous battle at Calumpit, and Nebraskians were on the firing line in the skirmishes which followed the wily plea for a truce by the late General Luna.

It may be remarked in passing that the Nebraska volunteers may have found inspiration in the fact that the regiment took the name of that other regiment which was enlisted during the sixties and fought so bravely at Shiloh over 30 years ago.

Along with the memory of the First and first among its martyrs will always stand the name of Colonel John M. Stotsenberg. No more pathetic incident of the Philippine war can be recalled than the death of that brave officer while leading his regiment in a victorious charge a short distance east of Malolos on April 23, 1899.

Stotsenberg had just returned from a visit to his wife and daughter at Manila. One battalion of the regiment had been sent to the relief of a detachment of the Fourth cavalry which had been surrounded. But Major Mulford found the enemy too strong. The colonel waved his sword and rode at the head of the two remaining battalions on to the trenches. A bullet pierced his heart, and the gallant officer fell lifeless from his horse, while his regiment, yelling like mad, charged on to victory.

The two companies which have most distinguished themselves are L of Omaha and D of Lincoln. The captain of Company L, the Thurston rifles, is Wallace C. Taylor, son of the collector of the port of Omaha, Cadet Taylor, who has been prominent in Nebraska for years. Taylor has recently been promoted to the rank of major for gallantry.

It was in the advance on Malolos that "Buck" Taylor outdid all his former achievements, which have not been small. His company, the Thurston rifles, was detailed to take a trench held by 100 Filipinos, whose sharpshooters were picking off our men in a tantalizing way. The rifles numbered about 40 at that time, and they tore away after Taylor like a lot of demons. They were on the trenches, and still the insurgents stuck to their position.

With guns for clubs, a hand to hand battle followed. "Buck" and his younger brother, Sergeant Herbert B. Taylor, fought side by side, each clubbing his man. When the fight was over, 70 dead Filipinos lay around the trenches, and nine of the rifles were wounded, some dying later. Captain Taylor was shot through the arm. He was taken to the hospital, where the surgeons fixed him up, so that a week or two later he resumed his command.

All of the killed in the regiment were unmarried men, and almost the entire roster is of men whose only ties at home are those of sweetheart and mother. The married men were nearly all sent home when the regiments were reduced to the minimum.

G. T. BAXTER.

Superior French Method.
From the Builder: We recommend those who are interested in public art in this country to look at the account given of the decorative work carried out at the new Paris Opera Comique. The exterior sculpture is by the greatest French sculptors of the day; for the decorative paintings in the auditorium, the staircases and the foyers, a galaxy of the most gifted French painters has been employed; and all this paid for by the government, for the public good and for the encouragement of national art. When shall we see such a thing in England? It is as if we had a London theater decorated with sculpture by Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Onslow Ford, and the halls and staircases painted by Mr. Watts, Mr. Tadema and Sir E. Poynter. Instead of that, we have theaters with sculpture done by stone carvers and paintings by decorating "firms."

Trouble Ahead.
"I will now give you some cold facts," shouted the campaign orator, fumbling among the newspaper clippings and memoranda that lay on the stand before him and finding some trouble in laying his hands on the desired documents; "some cold facts," he went on, somewhat flustered, "with which you can roast the life out of the flimsy arguments that will dribble through the through the faucets of the hiring press that opposes the election of our candidates. Ah, here they are! Listen!"—Chicago Tribune.

Pastor Was Absent Minded.
The late M. Pasteur was never more absent minded than one evening when he was dining with his son-in-law. During desert he was observed to carefully dip each cherry into his finger-bowl, with the professed object of getting rid of any microbes that might cling to the fruit. During a dissertation which ensued on the danger of microbes the professor became so absorbed in his subject that, wanting a drink, he took up the finger bowl and gulped down water, microbes and all.

Bohemia's Strange Minerals.
Not far from Trebisch, in Bohemia, are found many glassy looking objects, of a bottle-green color, and tending, when unbroken, to an egg shape, to which the name of moladivites has been given. Prof. Suess, of Vienna, from a recent study of these curious minerals, concludes that they are really meteorites, and should be added to the list of foreign bodies that have found their way to the earth's surface by falling from space.

Use for Volcano Dust.
Volcanic dust carried by the wind from the mountains of Puy in Auvergne enriches the soil of Limagros with phosphoric acid and potash. According to M. Nivois, inspector general of mines in France, it is owing to this natural fertilizer that the soil is so rich. A field at Gerzat, Clermont-Ferrand, has yielded a fine crop of hemp eighteen years running without any other manure.

Chinese Physicians and Emperor.
Medical practitioners in China probably do not hanker after royal patients. A Chinese physician who was recently called to prescribe for the emperor was not permitted to look at his august patient, much less to ask him questions. The dowager empress told him how the emperor felt as accurately as she could describe his condition, and the physician had to base his diagnosis on her guess.

India's Animal Hospital.
A Calcutta paper contains an account of the workhouse or asylum for aged and infirm beasts and birds that was established some thirteen years ago by a society of influential Hindus. It is near the Sodepur station, about ten miles from Calcutta, and is under the control of a manager, with a staff of 80 servants and an experienced veterinary surgeon.

Indian Gold Production.
Gold produce of the Indian mines has varied irregularly. Output of the largest mine has risen steadily from 52,250 ounces in 1894 to 169,165 in 1898. The second largest has steadily declined from 71,878 ounces in 1893 to 50,473 last year. The third rose from 28,336 ounces in 1894 to 54,201 in 1897, but dropped in 1898 to 40,080.

The Printer's Joke.
The Arkansas City Traveler says that when the printer who was working on a farm was told by the farmer's wife to set a hen, he replied: "Leaded or solid?" Which reminds us of Uncle John Speer's story of the printer in his office who was setting up a story and had a knight say: "Be gone, base brevier!" afterward explaining to the indignant author that there was no minion in the office.—Kansas City Journal.

Tomorrow Will be Dolls' Day

Every girl who comes with a parent and brings a doll to the store shall have a pair of real Vici Kid slippers for the doll. You know some dolls' tracks would frighten a bear hunter, but never mind how odd the feet are or how large, bring dolly along; we've a lot of sizes all ready, but if necessary we'll measure the feet and make special slippers to fit them. ## VICI KID

Shoe sales we shall make during the next year—Genuine Vici Kid, bought from Mr. Robert H. Foerderer. He makes Vici Kid. He is the only man in all the world who can make genuine Vici Kid. He discovered how to make it, he named it, he keeps the secret. He tans more than nine million young kid skins every year into Vici.

It is to get a sample of the real Vici Kid into every home that we send out these pretty slippers. Don't fail to bring your dolly. If we cannot fit its feet with the slippers in stock, we will make a pair to measure.

This week we are teaching shoe care. It is a lesson none can afford to not learn. Tidy, clean shoes are as essential to completeness of dress as tidy, clean hands.
